How to reach Kashmir great lakes trek Basecamp?

Our base camp is Sonamarg which is at a distance of 90 kms from Srinagar which takes approximately 3-4 hours.

Reaching Srinagar via Train:

One can take a train to Jammu and then make a taxi/bus ride to Srinagar. Srinagar is connected to the National Highway to the rest of the country.

Reaching Srinagar via air:

One can take a direct flight to Srinagar from Delhi or Mumbai to avoid the stopover at Jammu. The nearest airport is the Sheikh ul Alam airport also known as the Srinagar airport.

Detailed Kashmir Great Lakes Trek Itinerary:

Day 1: Arrival in Srinagar | Drive to Sonamarg (90 km, 4 hours)

The group will assemble at the Tourist Reception Centre in Srinagar at 11 AM. From here, we will begin our scenic drive towards Sonamarg, where Shitkari village serves as the base camp for the Kashmir Great Lakes trek. This journey offers breathtaking views of the lush valleys and towering mountains. Note: Please carry your original ID proof along with two photocopies, as these will need to be submitted at the army check post.

Day 2: Trek to Nichnai via Shekdur (11 km, 8 hours)

After an early breakfast, we will start our trek towards Nichnai, our next campsite. The trail winds through enchanting maple and pine forests, offering a stunning panoramic view of Sonamarg Valley. As we ascend, we will encounter flowing streams and vast meadows of Shekdur, surrounded by Bhoj trees and small peaks, making it a perfect resting spot. Following the Nichnai stream, we will reach our campsite, where we will have dinner and spend the night under the stars.

Day 3: Nichnai to Vishansar Lake via Nichnai Pass (12 km, 7 hours)

After breakfast, we will begin our journey towards the mesmerizing Vishansar Lake, a sacred site for Kashmiri Pandits. The trek passes through Nichnai Pass, situated behind twin peaks, offering breathtaking views of Sonamarg Valley. As we descend, the landscape transforms into flowery meadows, rivers, and waterfalls cascading from cliffs. Eventually, Vishansar Lake comes into sight, surrounded by towering mountains. Upon arrival, we will set up camp and enjoy a relaxed evening. Dinner will be served, followed by an overnight stay at the campsite.

Day 4: Vishansar Lake to Gadsar via Gadsar Pass (14 km, 8 hours)

After morning tea and breakfast, we will continue our trek towards Gadsar Lake. The trail first leads to Kishansar Lake, nestled above Vishansar, where green meadows meet crystal-clear blue waters. As we move forward, we will reach Gadsar Pass (13,750 ft), the highest point of the trek, offering stunning views. Further ahead, we will pass Yamsar Lake, associated with the Hindu god of death, Yama. Soon, the snow-covered cliffs will reveal the pristine Gadsar Lake, where we will set up camp and enjoy the peaceful surroundings. Dinner will be served before an overnight stay in tents.

Day 5: Gadsar to Satsar (12 km, 6 hours)

After breakfast, we will trek towards Satsar, a collection of seven alpine lakes at 12,000 ft. The trail takes us through dense green forests, valleys, and rivers, with towering mountains in the background. As we approach Satsar Ridge, we will also pass the Satsar Army Camp, the third line of defense from the LOC. Our campsite will be set up a few meters away, where we can relax and soak in the beauty of the surroundings. Dinner and an overnight stay will follow.

Day 6: Satsar to Gangabal Twin Lakes via Zaj Pass (11 km, 6 hours)

Post-breakfast, we will embark on a challenging trek filled with steep ascents and descents. Along the way, we will pass several small ridges and lakes before finally arriving at Gangabal Lake, the largest of them all. Adjacent to it lies Nundkol Lake, situated at the base of Mount Harmukh, where the Harmukh Glacier hangs over the mountain's edge. We will set up camp near Nundkol Lake, enjoy a hot meal, and spend the night in the tranquility of nature.

Day 7: Gangabal to Naranag (11 km, 6 hours) | Drive to Srinagar

After breakfast, we will begin our final descent towards Naranag, passing through lush green forests and witnessing traces of civilization along the way. The meadows eventually transition into wooden huts and villages, marking our arrival at Naranag (8,500 ft). From here, we will drive back to Srinagar, where the group will disband, marking the end of the trek with unforgettable memories.
