McLeodganj Triund Trek

⌚ 4 nights, 5 days

Overview

Triund Trek - Triund Snowline Trek

The Triund Trek is one of the most popular and beginner-friendly Himalayan treks, making it an ideal weekend getaway for first-time trekkers and nature lovers. Starting from McLeod Ganj, this short and scenic trek offers a perfect blend of adventure, culture, and breathtaking mountain views.

McLeod Ganj, known for its vibrant Tibetan influence, gives trekkers a chance to experience Buddhist monasteries, prayer flags, and peaceful Himalayan vibes even before the trek begins. As you walk along the trail, you get glimpses of Buddhism, spiritual calm, and local mountain life, making the journey as enriching as the destination.

Situated at an altitude of 2,880 meters, Triund rewards trekkers with spectacular panoramic views. On one side lies the majestic Dhauladhar Range, while the other opens up to the sweeping landscapes of the Kangra Valley. Triund is a vast alpine meadow, often called the crown jewel of Dharamshala, and is one of the most scenic trekking destinations in Himachal Pradesh.

The Triund trek route passes through Bhagsu Waterfall, small gushing streams, and dense forests of pine, oak, and deodar, offering a refreshing experience throughout the hike. As you gain altitude, the views become more dramatic, with floating clouds, snow-capped peaks, and open green pastures creating picture-perfect moments.

Camping at Triund is one of the biggest highlights of the trek. Watching the sunset over the Himalayas, spending the night under a star-filled sky, and waking up to pristine mountain views make this trek one of the best camping experiences in India. The Triund Trek is a perfect choice for those looking for an easy Himalayan trek that delivers unforgettable views, peaceful surroundings, and a true taste of mountain adventure.
