Overview

Tirthan Valley: Discover Nature's Hidden Gem

Tirthan Valley, named after the pristine Tirthan River, is a breathtaking destination nestled in the Great Himalayan National Park. The river originates from the glacial springs of Hanskund, a snow-capped peak that adds to the valley's untouched beauty.

A year-round paradise, Tirthan Valley is best visited between March to June and mid-September to November. This offbeat destination offers something for every traveler, from trekking through scenic trails and fishing in crystal-clear waters to spotting wildlife and exploring charming hill villages. For those seeking relaxation, the valley provides the perfect escape to unwind amidst lush pine forests and serene landscapes.

If you're ready for an unforgettable adventure, explore our exclusive Tirthan Valley tour packages and immerse yourself in the magic of this hidden Himalayan treasure.

Itinerary

Tirthan Valley: A Hidden Himalayan Paradise

Nestled in Himachal Pradesh, Tirthan Valley is a serene escape known for its untouched beauty, crystal-clear rivers, dense forests, and charming villages. Located in the Great Himalayan National Park (GHNP), it is an ideal destination for nature lovers, trekkers, and those seeking peace away from the tourist crowds.

Tirthan Valley in Snow

Tirthan Valley transforms into a winter wonderland between December and February when the region receives snowfall. The snow-covered landscapes, frozen rivers, and misty pine forests create a magical setting, perfect for a peaceful retreat. However, accessibility may be limited during heavy snowfall.

One of the must-visit attractions in the valley is the Choie Waterfall (also called Chhoie or Chhooi Waterfall). A short trek through dense forests leads to this stunning cascade, offering a refreshing experience amidst nature. The waterfall is particularly beautiful during the monsoon and post-monsoon seasons when the water flow is at its peak.

Tirthan Valley Height

Tirthan Valley sits at an altitude of approximately 1600 meters (5249 feet) above sea level, providing pleasant weather throughout the year with breathtaking views of the surrounding Himalayan ranges.

Tirthan Valley Temperature

The temperature in Tirthan Valley varies with the seasons:

- Summer (March to June): 10°C to 25°C – Pleasant and perfect for outdoor activities.
- Monsoon (July to September): 12°C to 20°C – Lush greenery, but occasional landslides.
- Autumn (September to November): 5°C to 20°C – Crisp air and vibrant landscapes.
- Winter (December to February): -5°C to 10°C – Snowfall and a picturesque winter experience.

How to Reach Tirthan Valley

- By Air: The nearest airport is Bhuntar Airport (50 km away). From there, taxis and buses are available to reach Tirthan.
- By Train: The closest railway station is Chandigarh Railway Station (250 km away), followed by a road journey via bus or taxi.
- By Road: Tirthan Valley is well-connected via road. Delhi to Tirthan is approximately 500 km (around 12-14 hours by road). Buses to Aut (the nearest bus stop) are available from Delhi, Chandigarh, and Manali, followed by a taxi ride to Tirthan Valley.

Tirthan Valley is an offbeat destination perfect for adventure and relaxation, offering a unique blend of nature, wildlife, and tranquility in the lap of the Himalayas.
